PASSION & PURPOSE

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

Ephesians 2:10

Before diving into creating new goals, let's take a fresh look at our purpose and calling. Perhaps you will uncover new areas that you have yet to give serious thought to.

You were created ON purpose FOR purpose. God has set apart good works for you to do in your life. And they may shift from season to season, but they are all a part of how He created you.

Your calling is found in the sweet spot at the intersection of your passions, your gifts & experiences, and where there is a need.

Leadership consultant Michael Hyatt says that your calling has four characteristics:

- External your calling originates outside of you; it comes from God; He pulls you toward it with your passion, gifts, experiences.
- Personal your calling comes specifically to you; it is something you were made to do that only you can do in exactly the way you might do it. Your experiences, set of gifts, circumstances, talents & abilities all unique.
- Appealing it is something that profoundly resonates inside of you. People wrongly think if something is your calling it can't be attractive not true. If it really is part of your calling, it will be deeply appealing; something in your heart of hearts you want to do. You will find fulfillment in doing it.
- Optional you have a choice to respond to calling or not. There will be a tugging at you; you may know you need to do, but for whatever reason, maybe fear, you can choose not to.

The following pages contain several worksheets with prompts and brainstorm space to think through your passion, gifting, what your heart breaks for, etc. It can be a space to refer to and update periodically. It might help guide you in determining new goals to begin stepping into your calling.

Take a stab at responding to each section, even if you have to come back to a few of them at different times. Some may seem a bit repetitive, but often a slight shift in the question can help you think about it differently. Remember, you don't have to answer them all at once. You may want to spend time thinking and praying about some areas and come back to them.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

"To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills." (1 Corinthians 12:7-11)

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace" (1 Peter 4:10)

"Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness." (Romans 12:608)

PASSION & PURPOSE BRAINSTORM

It will help you think through possible goals for the year to start moving in the direction of your calling.

PASSION & PURPOSE COMMUNITY

Look for others who share your passion and calling space. Spend time together to toss out ideas and dream together during the year. Perhaps you can even team up to get experience together and share resources and tips. Where are some places you can find community that might support and complement your calling area? Who are some people doing what you want to do? Write down their names. Follow them on social media, read their books, listen to their interviews. What can you learn from them? Can you ask one of them to mentor you?
